EDMONTON BULLETIN, NOVEMBER 19TH, 1893.

FALL BUSINESS.

The state of the roads and the uncertainty and difficulty in crossing the river during the past three weeks complicated with the disagreeable and changeable weather has prevented the usual volume of business expected at this season from being done. Probably never before was the closing of the river—the definite manifestation of winter —so welcome as it is at this time. The closing of the river and the hardening of the roads will enable the produce which has been kept back for so long to be moved; and what is better still the outside demand for Edmonton produce seems to be better than has been usual of recent years. The dry season in Manitoba has made the oat crop light, and prices consequently are fairly good.
Indeed there is a prospect that the demand for Edmonton oats will be strong enough to even climb over the railway rates to a certain extent. That is, while consumers in Southern Alberta and British Columbia are paying two prices for oats the Edmonton farmer will receive a larger or smaller part of one fair price. The other price will go to help to swell the next annual statement of profit of the C. P. R. However, as long as the stuff can be sold at all of course people here should not complain. There is every prospect of a good demand for hay, of which this district has a more than usually large supply of more than usual good quality. With a good demand for oats and hay all winter and with plenty of both to sell and with a local cash market for wheat there is a fair prospect of a good winter's trade.

MIXED FARMING AGAIN.

The following article from the Winnipeg Tribune points as strongly to the advantages of mixed farming and therefore to the advantages of the country most suitable for that branch of agriculture, as anything that has yet appeared.
Based as it is upon the opinions of the first party of British farmer delegates who visited this district it has special value here:

"We have had British farmer delegates visiting us before to-day, and there are those among us sceptical enough to question whether the good they did equalled the cost. The expectation is that the reports of the country which they carry back with them would influence others to come and settle with us. Without being able to trace directly to this source the deciding influence in the case of any of our immigrants, it is impossible not to believe that the good opinions of our visitors have been productive of very substantial benefit. But whether they bring us immigrants or not, they will more than repay all the expense to the country if our farmers will but listen to their advice as to the best manner of pursuing their occupation. The last of our most recent visitors have just returned from their tour of inspection. They speak freely of what they have seen, and without exception are enthusiastic in their praise of the Northwest. But they tell also of the slipshod methods of farming which have come under their observation. These are practical, intelligent, experienced agriculturists, who know as well as any in the world what they are talking about. They have gone over the whole country, and understand fully the conditions which are to be faced. One of them, Mr.
Dempster, says that the cultivation is not what it ought to be. Mr. Franklin would advise his own people to come out if they were to practice mixed farming, but he would strenuously dissuade them against wheat alone. Mr. Pitt deplors the fact that much of the land he saw was not farmed, but simply "slobbered over." He mentions the case of one farm where he found an accumulation of eleven years manure. If he was settling in this country he would provide himself with a hen and a sow.

"I would soon have returns sufficient to support myself," he says, "and an increase in my stock. As it is your farmers are throwing away the tailings of the grain and sending to Ontario for their pork." This is not true of all our farmers, nor perhaps of a majority of them, but beyond all question it is true of too many of them.

There is no royal road to success in farming, any more in the Northwest than elsewhere. Nor is there any short cut to it, nor any patent process for the achievement of result. Success is open to the farmer who works for it intelligently on the old orthodox lines. Before land will yield its best it has to be properly prepared for it, and something has to be given back to the soil in return for what is taken from it, otherwise there will be exhaustion. Our purely grain farmers, as Mr. Pitt observes, are half time men; they work only six months in the year. No other class of people in Canada can afford to do that.
It is time to get rid of the delusions under which too many of our settlers started in the Northwest. Not one in a hundred will succeed by wheat alone.
The wise farmer will take up his regular trade and raise every thing that can be made to pay. He will have his own butter, and eggs, and cheese, bacon, beef and mutton, and live well that he may work well; and he will have a little of each to spare for the ready dollar when needed. As soon as all our farmers will get back to first principles and faithfully observe them they will find the only road to success that has ever been discovered.

THE Chicago Interior says: "We are not so anxious to annex Canada as we are to see some of her good ideas transplanted to this side of the border.
Throughout the whole extent of her vast western dominions you will not find an outlaw, or hear of a case of lynching. It is not because she has to deal with a class of frontiersmen so different from those of our own western states, but because she has laws and executes them. You can go nowhere not even in the fastnesses of the Rockies or the isolation of the Selkirk, without finding the scarlet uniform of her mounted police. You feel everywhere the presence of protecting law.
You are made to realize that you are in a land of order, and that your person and property are under the care of the commonwealth. In too many of our own communities we are fast relapsing into that barbarism in which private revenge becomes the miserable substitute for public justice. In so far as we do this we are centuries behind our age."

The Battleford Herald says that the crown timber agent at Prince Albert is demanding from Battleford people a return of the timber permits issued in 1884.

The Battleford steam ferry across the Saskatchewan ceased running on October 28th.

H. C. TAYLOR,

Advocate for the Plaintiff.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN, ALTA.

In April last our town could only boast of having: One general store, one church (Presbyterian), telegraph office, post office, express office, hotel and bakery, since which have been added—an agricultural implement agency, flour and feed store, livery stable, bakery, a new addition to the hotel, blacksmith shop, real estate and insurance agency, harness shop, barber shop, billiard hall and another large general store, having a frontage of 42 feet—this establishment would be a credit to any city. Also lumber yard. A coal mine under the townsite, is at the moment being opened up, and the indications are for between a three and four foot seam, this will be a good thing for every household. The coal is to be sold at the mine for $2 per ton. So that Fort Saskatchewan has not done so badly in the past seven months. There are openings for: Druggist, shoemaker, furniture shop, roller process flour mill, (a free site will be given a mill, and no doubt a bonus could also be secured from the farmers, as we are so far away from the nearest mill, although this is the centre of the wheat growing country) no assistance will be rendered any flour mill, except the roller process. A grain elevator is also wanted. A good water power can be obtained here by spending some money on the undertaking, namely the dredging and damming of southeast side of the island. The island in question is situated like that from which the Eau Claire company get such a good power in Calgary. Capitalists looking for water power sites please note that no where in the west is there a better chance than this offers. We want a flour mill and electric light, and railway, we have the water power, but not the capital to utilize it.

A large brickyard is to be opened, just opposite the island, in the spring, good clay having been found in abundance. A new school house is also spoken of, certainly it is badly wanted.

Owing to the scarcity of threshers, only about 1/4 of the grain is threshed so far. The crops have been simply immense. The new C. & E. railway tariff from Edmonton, on grain and vegetables for shipment to Calgary and points west, has given little, or no satisfaction, and no wonder. It is still out of all reason when compared with rates given by the C. P. R. to Manitoba exporters when shipping to their markets. What astonishes the settlers in the north is the apathy of the Edmonton board of trade on this subject. The board is composed of nearly all the business men of the town, whose interests are more at stake, for the sake of their farmer customers, than anybody else's almost, and yet have they done anything to try and better the thing? Not at all, Macawber like, they are waiting for something to turn up. The city of Winnipeg can thank its board of trade for the great interest, and the good resulting therefrom, which the board has always taken since its formation, in all important questions affecting trade. Why should it not be said also of the Edmonton board of trade, when resurrected?

Our ferry is still running. Very little ice for past few days.

ELECTRIC LIGHT CO. MEETING.

MANAGING DIRECTOR'S REPORT.

EDMONTON, November 8th, 1893.

Your directors beg leave to report that they have not been as successful in the years' operations as they led you to hope last year. Two or three items of expenditure were in a manner forced on us, and although if the money had not been expended in that way a handsome surplus could have been shown, yet in the future you will be more than recompensed when the wisdom of the expenditure becomes apparent. Reference is had to the agreement entered into with the town, an asset which will be of great value in the future, but which of course cannot be valued in our financial statement. This cost us nearly $200. We were forced to an outlay of over $300 in getting water from the river, and now have a supply which is ample for our present and future needs. This one item made a large hole in our earnings. Another expenditure has been one of over $100 for an apparatus to burn coal slack. We have only had it in for a week, and have not given it a fair trial, but judging from what it has done so far, we can look to a large reduction in the item of fuel in the future. Negotiations have been and are in progress to increase the capacity of our plant very largely without in any way encroaching on our agreement with the town. We expect to do this at an outlay of about $600. And as the working expenses will be no greater with that increase than at present, except in the one item of coal, we expect to gain largely in our net receipts by the increase. Bank interest, about $35 a month, is another heavy item against running expenses and there does not seem any reasonable hope of soon reducing it. We started our enterprise with a capital altogether too small for the work undertaken, thus paying interest on borrowed capital. We are, however, far from discouraged over the prospect, and feel that the company will shortly become a good paying investment. We have not yet been running two years, and everything in connection with the business of electric lighting was new to us. With the experience gained in the past we feel sanguine of ultimate success. All of which is respectfully submitted

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

EDMONTON, 6th November, 1893.

J. A. McDOUGALL,

President Edmonton Electric lighting and power company, limited.

SIR: Having examined the books of your company I beg to submit the following report, and statements herewith enclosed.

The balance sheet and accompanying statements, show a deficit of $676.79, on the two years business, that being the amount of your liabilities in excess of assets.

To enable you to place the affairs of the company before the shareholders in a more tangible and easily understood form, I have added a statement of "result of years business" showing a reduction of the deficit equivalent to a gain of $28.13 for year now ended. This is undoubtedly a very small return on the amount invested, but it is a step in the right direction, and points to a more hopeful future as the business develops and experience enables you more fully to understand the peculiarities of its conditions. I hope that this statement, in placing before you the figures of your income and expenditure may enable you to institute measures for obtaining an increase of the one or reduction of the other to produce a more favorable result next year. I beg to point out the large reduction of your liabilities ($2,558.18) which although effected almost entirely by a decrease of your assets ($2,552.05) still places you in a better position financially. In this respect special attention should be given to the changes from a bank overdraft of $250.30 to a deposit on hand of $388.33. You have still in your hands $1,030 worth of stock and $912 available for call. Your plant and stock in trade are I presume, worth what they cost you and now stand at figures $901.25 over the full amount of your capital stock.

An inventory has been taken, which I have worked up as fully and fairly as information at my disposal would admit. It furnishes details of goods available for sale, (stock in trade) oil, tools and material which has been charged to running expenses, is now deducted from the running expenses of the past year, and may be recharged and applied to next years business; and spare stores, machine fittings, etc., etc., forming part of plant and available for use or sale in the future.

I found your books in good order, and have the pleasure of again complimenting Mr. Jellett on his zeal and attention to your interests.

I am sir,

Your obedient servant,

G. J. KINNAIRD.

P. S. Since closing accounts and drawing out this report I have seen your general manager, Mr. Taylor, and he informs me that the last bill of goods from Keith & Fitz-immons amounting to $55.61 are still in transit and consequently have been omitted from the inventory. The result is as follows:

Increase of assets (stock in trade) to.....	$13,892.04
Decrease of deficit to.....	621.18
Increase of income (lessening of loss in stock in trade).....	4,405.82
Consequent increase of gain for year.....	83.74
	G. J. K.

In the Supreme Court of the Northwest Territories, Northern Alberta Judicial District.

In the matter of the Estate of Thomas Smith, deceased.

Upon the application of Andrew McNicol, the Administrator of the estate of the said deceased, and upon reading the petition, affidavit and other documents filed upon his application for letters of administration.

I do hereby order that all creditors and persons having claims against the estate of the said Thomas Smith, deceased, late of South Edmonton, in the District of Alberta, Miner, who died on or about the thirteenth day of May, 1893, do send in their claims against the estate of the said deceased to Messrs. S. S. & H. C. Taylor, of Edmonton aforesaid, Advocates for the said Andrew McNicol, within six weeks after the first publication of this notice in the Edmonton Bulletin:

I do hereby direct that this order shall be published in the said newspaper once in each week for four consecutive weeks.

And notice is hereby given that at the expiration of the time above fixed the said Andrew McNicol shall be at liberty to distribute the assets of the deceased or any part thereof amongst the parties entitled thereto, having regard to the claims only as to which the said Andrew McNicol has then notice, and that he shall not be liable for the estate or any part thereof so distributed to any person of whose claim the said Andrew McNicol shall not have had notice, at the time of distribution of the estate or any part thereof as aforesaid.

News of Edmonton and surroundings up to hour of issue.

News of the world by telegraph up to day of issue and from two to five days ahead of any other paper reaching Edmonton.

Controlled only by the proprietor and therefore always ready and willing to speak out for the good of the town and district.

THE BULLETIN is read more generally throughout the Edmonton district than any other paper.

If you want to do business in the Edmonton district you can reach more of the people with a less expenditure of money through the advertising columns of the BULLETIN than by any other means.

Fair advertising rates charged, and like rates to all parties.

No advertising of a questionable nature admitted if its character is known.

THE BULLETIN Printing office is second to none in the Territories. Only first-class type, machinery and paper employed. Printing of all kinds done promptly, neatly and cheaply. Call and see samples of work, and get prices before ordering your printing elsewhere.

A newspaper is not a producing industry, but if properly conducted it assists and stimulates production and progress more than any other single agency of like cost. Money spent towards the support of a newspaper is almost entirely spent within the town in which the paper is published and is therefore not lost to the business of the town.

The local newspaper represents the district in which it is published to the outside world.

Support your home paper liberally if it deserves support, so that it can give the best possible impression of your town and district as a field for immigration and investment.

There is big money for a new town in having a live and interesting paper.
